

AT A Glance

Marina del Rey is L.A.'s coastal playground – a destination where laid-back luxury and year-round recreation come with a sunny Southern California twist. From resort-style hotels to harborside restaurants and charter yachts, L.A.'s Marina is a perfect backdrop for vacations, reunions, business meetings, and more.

-  4 miles north of LAX
-  4,600+ boat slips
-  7 resort-style waterfront hotels
-  100,000+ sq ft of indoor/outdoor meeting & event space
-  75+ restaurants
-  Year-round sunshine averaging 60°F

HOTELS

Marina del Rey has seven hotels with a combined 1,400+ guest rooms and suites. Ranging from boutique to luxury, they offer water views and easy access to the waterfront promenade, Marina "Mother's" Beach, restaurants, and recreational activities.

DINING

Marina del Rey is home to more than 70 full-service restaurants representing cuisines from around the globe. From fresh-caught seafood to farm-to-table fare, classic Italian to modern American favorites, L.A.'s Marina offers top-tier dining indoors and out.

ACTIVITIES

Marina del Rey is L.A.'s premier recreational hub for outdoor activities, offering easy access to water sports like sailing, paddleboarding, and kayaking, as well as plenty of thrills on land, including the 22-mile Marvin Braude Coastal Bike Path and Marina "Mother's" Beach, a favorite destination for volleyball, picnics, and playground fun.

EVENTS

Marina del Rey hosts free activities throughout the year, including the Fourth of July Fireworks, Summer Concert Series, and Holiday Boat Parade. Other popular events include the Beach Eats food trucks, Sunset Series Regattas, Marina del Rey Farmers Market, and weekend concerts at Fisherman's Village.

BOATING

As the largest man-made small-craft harbor in North America with over 4,600 boat slips, Marina del Rey offers a variety of watercraft rentals and skippered charters. The Marina del Rey Tourism Board has a list of vetted charter companies at visitmdr.com/charters. City Cruises also offers weekly dining cruises in the harbor year-round.

LOCATION

Situated in the heart of the Los Angeles coastline, Marina del Rey is four miles from LAX and offers waterfront hotels, dining, and year-round water recreation and harbor cruises. It is walking distance to Venice Beach and a bike ride from Santa Monica. Its proximity to major freeways provides easy access to L.A.'s top attractions like Universal Studios Hollywood, Sofi Stadium, and Beverly Hills.

